

Prokofiev: "Montagues and Capulets" from Romeo and Juliet

The graphic is divided into six horizontal panels, each illustrating a different musical element or structure:

- Panel 1 (Yellow background): Features red arrows pointing right, some with multiple arrowheads, and three grey knight helmets. Blue wavy lines are also present.
- Panel 2 (Yellow background): Features red arrows pointing right, some with multiple arrowheads, and two grey knight helmets. Blue wavy lines are also present.
- Panel 3 (Light blue background): Features four purple shields with white stars and a series of purple rectangular blocks connected by dots, forming a jagged line that ends in a large purple arrow pointing right.
- Panel 4 (Light blue background): Features a series of purple rectangular blocks connected by dots, forming a jagged line that ends in a large purple arrow pointing right.
- Panel 5 (Light blue background): Features a series of purple rectangular blocks connected by dots, forming a jagged line that ends in a large purple arrow pointing right.
- Panel 6 (Light blue background): Features a series of purple rectangular blocks connected by dots, forming a jagged line that ends in a large purple arrow pointing right.

(Continue to Page 2)

Prokofiev: “Montagues and Capulets” from Romeo and Juliet (2)

